AWS YOUNG BUILDERS CHALLENGE

Hello, I'm Ajay Sharad Pawar, I study in 7th Std and I ranked top 10 in Maharashtra and top 100 in India, in the AWS Young Builders Challenge. I got to know about this competition from my A.I teacher and it sparked my interest, so I decided to participate in it. And what I had to do was to create a project on Artificial Intelligence in a website called 'Code.org'

So I decided to make a project on how A.I could help us in the future so I coded a game and wrote some points like A.I could help Doctors in surgeries and it could also make human life much easier by providing a solution to almost any challenges etc. and after it was done I submitted it and my rank was amazing. I am really glad that I participated.
